The background of the entire page is a complex, abstract geometric pattern. It consists of numerous straight lines of varying lengths and thicknesses, some solid and some double-lined, intersecting at various angles. The lines are primarily in shades of olive green and brown, creating a dynamic, starburst-like effect that radiates from the center. The lines vary in thickness, with some being thin and others being quite bold. The overall composition is non-representational and modernist.

CONGRESS
PRESENTS

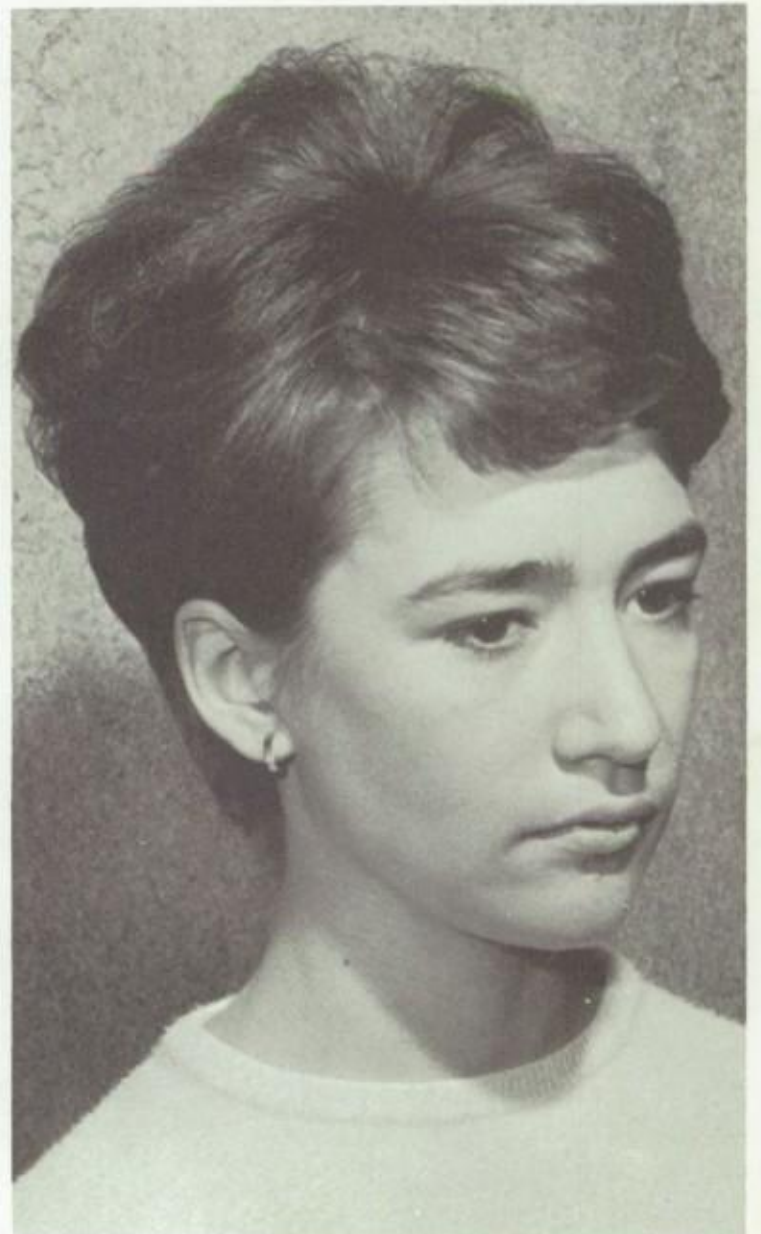

THE MANY FACES OF

This is the time for a new look at you...

You, straining to see a certain face in the hall, trying to memorize the Preamble to the Constitution...you, exploding with football fervor, walking through the night with only the sharp sound of crunching snow...you, being shoved through the line in the cafeteria, being startled from a deep sleep by the bell

OLEAN HIGH SCHOOL

This is the time to really learn what you are, what you can be... the time to put into action all your hopes, your ambitions, and your ideals... the time to discover the beauty of close friendship... the time to realize that you will often be disappointed in life, but that you will always be able to rise up again because of some inner strength, some inner knowledge that there are countless wonderful and fulfilling experiences ahead of you.

VALEDICTORIAN AND SALUTATORIAN

Louise Stomierowski—Salutatorian

Neil Johnson—Valedictorian

This is what they faced through four years.

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENT ... REINHOLD SCHLOTHAUER OF GERMANY

Reinhold became one of the many familiar faces...

and showed himself willing to help...

in all facets of school life.

At the sign of the first snow, Reinhold was ready to enjoy Olean's winter season.

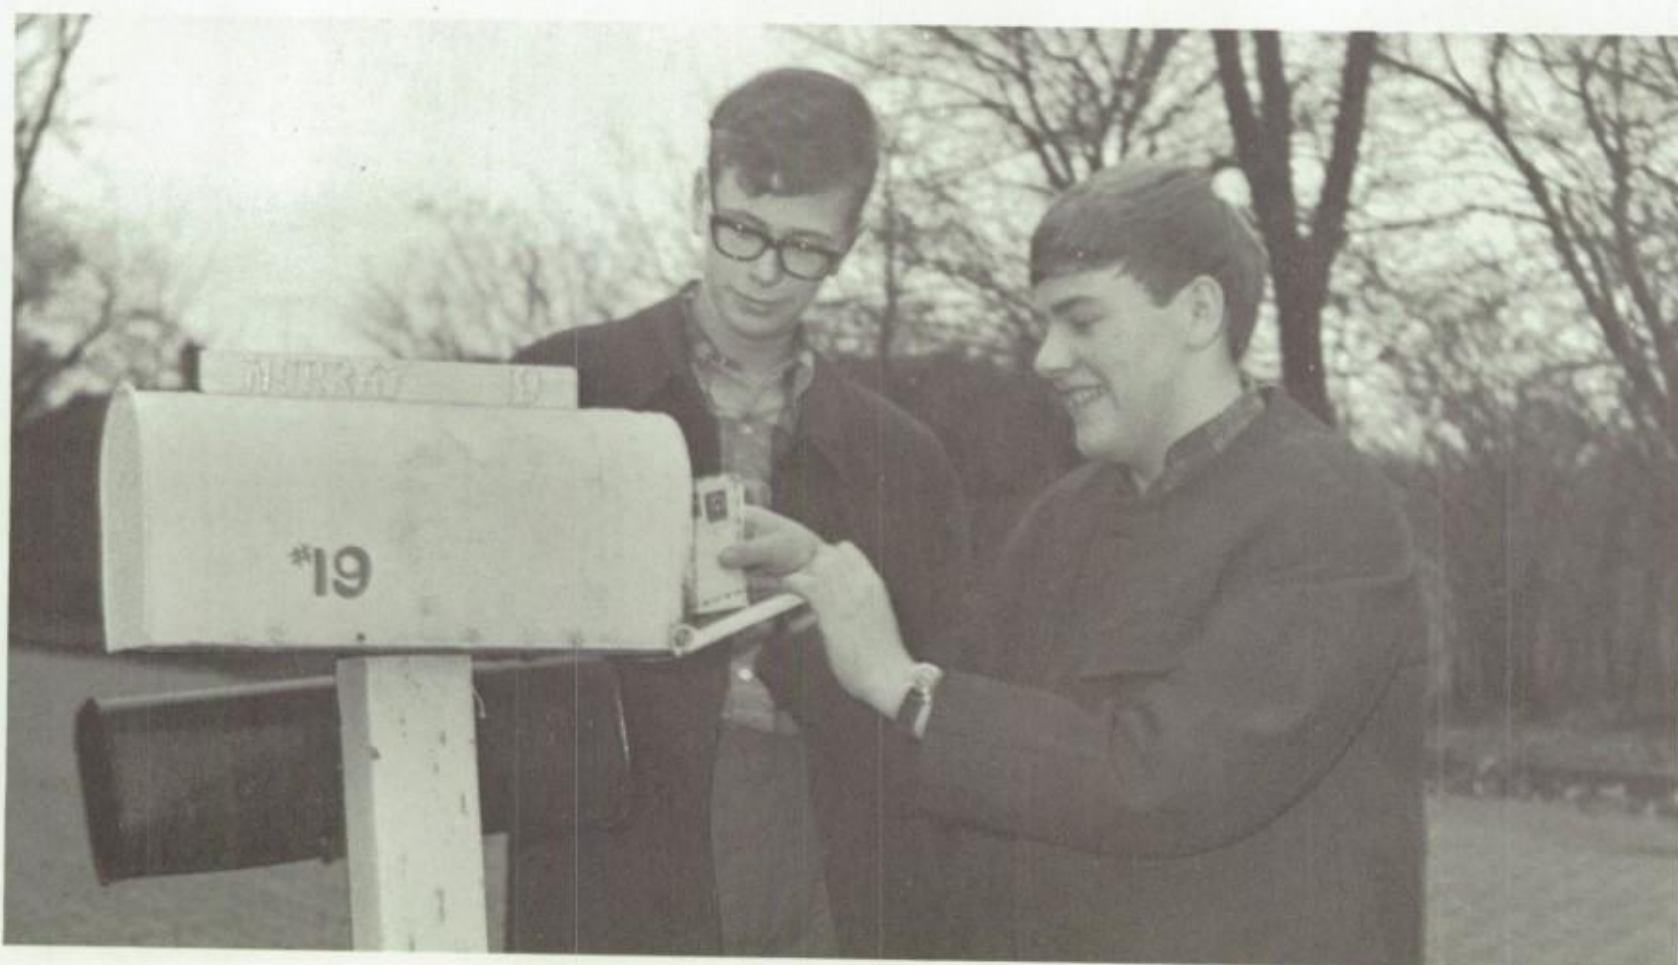

He soon gained new friends...

and loved ones in America...

even though his strongest ties were with Germany.

SENIORS OFF GUARD

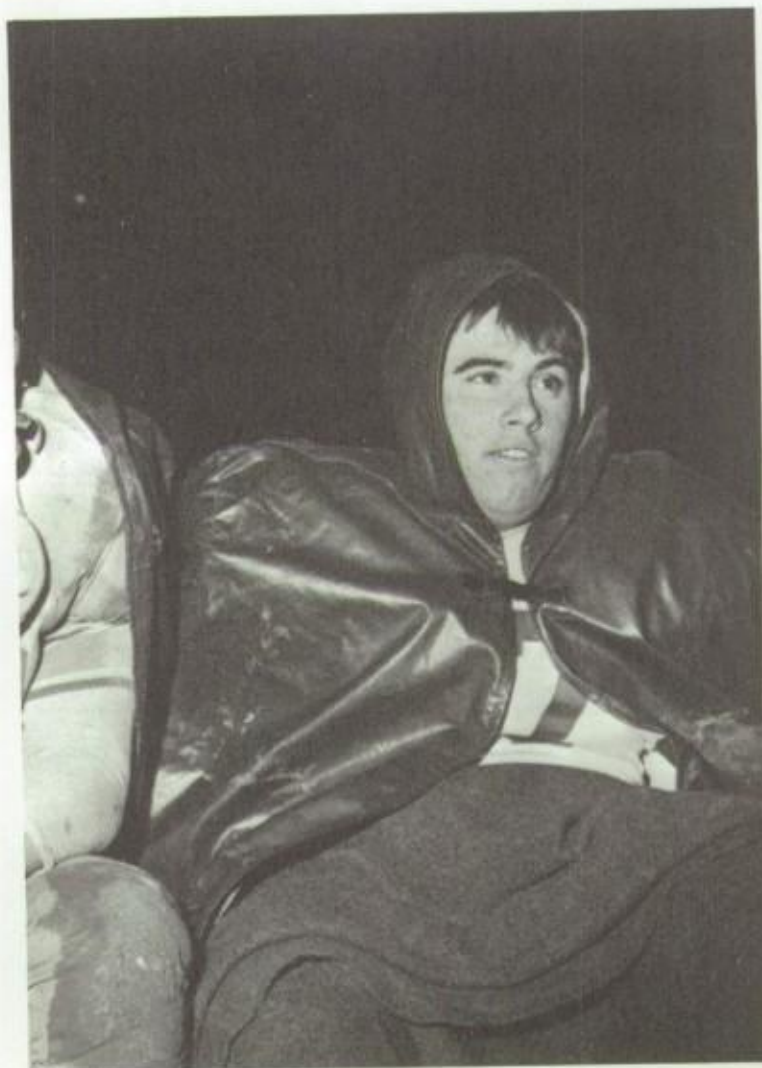

Others were in need of your support.

John always had a good reason for skipping class.

...and then this great big black bear took a swipe...

A guy has a right to be comfortable!

Our "esteemed" leader.

Neil-a-go-go.

Most talented senior...1966.

One of our more active seniors.

S P O R T S

Whether you were a player or a spectator, you were filled with the suspense and excitement of each game.

B A S K E T B A L L

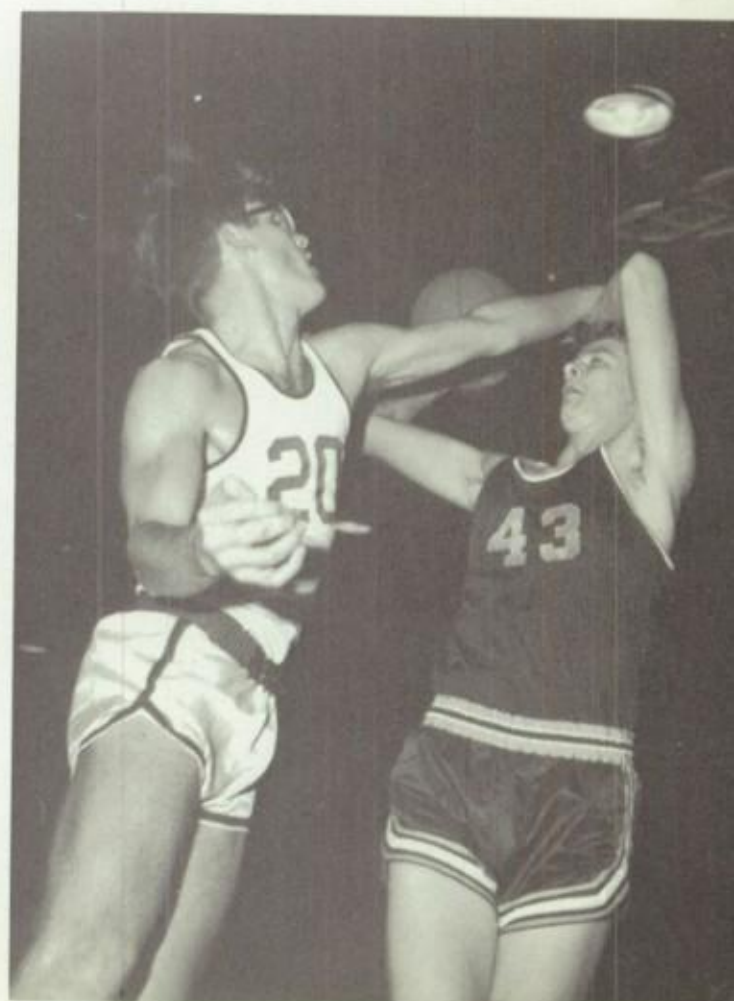

Each player responded to your wild screams of "WE WANT A BASKET!"

The understanding between Coach and Players was evident in their mutual eagerness to win.

Win or lose, you experienced the additional joy of knowing that your team was one of the best.

FOOTBALL

The biting air of an October night... the team bursting through the arc and onto the field... the quiet awe as the "Star-Spangled Banner" envelops the stadium.

Hot chocolate burning your tongue . . . a blur of bright plaids and corduroys . . . being caught up in the growing excitement of those around you

The beat of the drums, louder and faster...the team charges down the field for the first kick-off...helmets clashing as fighting players are thrown to the ground...finally a breakthrough...one of your team emerges from the mass...a long, glorious dash down the open field...it's a touchdown!

Nancy McAfee and Chris Henzel—Co-Chairmen of Winter Weekend 1966

Senior girls plan a defense in their game against the boys.

Winter Weekend . . . an assembly filled with anticipation . . . anguish at losing to Nichols in the last minute . . . the smug look on the faces of senior boys . . . the Tigermen . . . lots of snow-one day late . . . a radiant court.

The Huskies try their hardest. . .

but Nichols comes through in the end.

A huge sign decorates the cafeteria announcing .

the sports dance with . . .

Jack Garner and his disc jockeys.

O.H.S. ASSEMBLIES

President Kurt Monsell welcomes new members to the National Honor Society.

Assembly programs enriched and enlivened by the OHS band

A trampoline expert tests the agility of some of our students.

An exciting tale of travel through India captivates the entire student body.

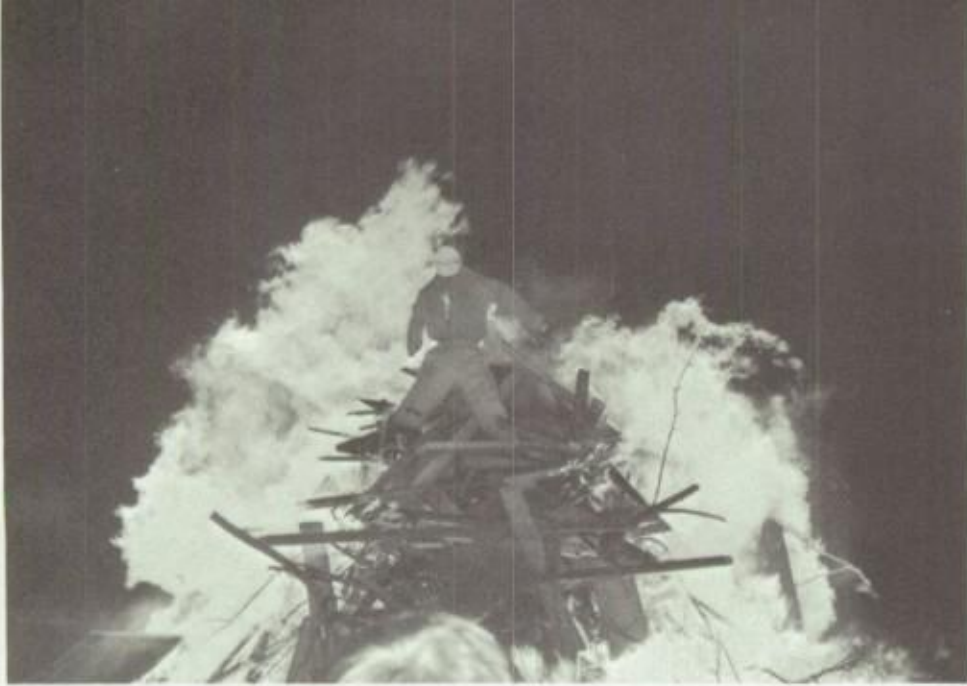

HOMEcoming

One sign tells the story of Homecoming '65 . . .

Denny and Dan outline the weekend's events . . .

Bringing revenge on a foe—the Bradford Owls . . .

A singing, cheering chain of Huskie fans . . .

Milling, shoving, laughing students, hands grasping to form a line, a spark, then a blazing heap . . .

Holes and patches were a sign of beauty . . .

Crazy clothes, disc jockeys, a "grubby" court . . .

A mad, confused, rushed afternoon of painting and hammering, . . . wild cheers, then bitter disappointment . . . but later, the disappointment forgotten amid the crowded, noisy dancing.

A winning float . . .

Crashing to the ground for a recovery . . .

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

Darkness, and flickering candles moving down the aisle, reflecting only faces and the glittering of tinsel on white angel costumes. . . darkness, but a single resplendent scene of statuesque shepherds, wisemen, and Holy Family silhouetted against a multicolored window . . . first, music from above, soft and soothing, then from below, full-bodied and rejoicing.
